Fr. Duford Receives Valley Forge Award

On Sunday, October 4th, Father Gerard Duford S.S.E., was awarded one of the medals of the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. The award was made in recognition of Father Duford's fine work in conducting a series of local religious programs, consisting of talks entitled "The Knight and the Lady." The ceremony took place at WJOY as a part of the first program of the new series.

The Award Committee of the Freedoms Foundation used the programs dating from September to November 1952, as a basis for their selection. The theme of these programs was "The Dignity of Citizenship." They were chosen because in the opinion of the Committee they helped further the aims of the Freedoms Foundation by

NEW BOOKS AND DISCS STOCK LIBRARY SHELVES

There are 100 new books and 40 new records now at the library.

The new books range from "How to Write a Love Letter" and "Drinking in College" to "God and the General's Daughter" and "The Juggler of Our Lady."

In other words, the new books which are now at the library cover quite an area. Many of the books are extremely interesting in that they are telling about things that interest the average college student. Those which would be popular with the college man, in addition to the first two mentioned above are, "Modern Football for the Spectator," "The Handbook of Skits and Stunts," and a novel by the name of "Blanket Boy."

The records just in are quite varied, too. The Library has classical, semi-classical, religious, and martial records among the new ones. Besides these, there are such interesting discs as Edward R. Murrow's series of "I Can Hear It Now," and a recorded "Course in Effective Public Speaking," by Milton Cross.

The book "How to Write a Love Letter" is one whose

Murray And Crotty Act As Co-Chairmen

On the evening of Saturday, October 17, the Class of '54, will once more strut its stuff with the presentation of the annual Senior Ball at St. Anthony's Hall in South Burlington.

It's no secret that some of the best social events ever held here at St. Michael's were put on under the direction of the Class of '54. This year's Senior Class never directed an unsuccessful dance, from the yearly class dances to last year's Junior Prom, recognized as the finest in many years. On Saturday, the string will remain intact with the presentation of the Ball under the direction of Co-chairman John Crotty and Tom Murray.

This year's Ball, originally set for the Burlington Country Club, was at the last minute switched to St. Anthony's Hall in South Burlington. The decision to close the Country Club before October 17, threw the plans for the dance into temporary turmoil. But some quick action on the part of Pres. John O'Connor and the dance committee procured the brand new St. Anthony's Hall for the occasion. The Hall

INDOCHINESE TEACHER STUDIES EDUCATIONAL PRACTICES AT ST. M.

St. Michael's College has been host for the past few weeks to a visiting teacher from a foreign land. Brother Dang Van Toan, a teacher at the Catholic Tabert Institute in Saigon, Indochina, is in the United States to observe educational practices here. The program is sponsored by the state department and the U.S. Office of Education.

Brother Dang, one of ten such foreign teachers in Vermont, has been staying at St. Michael's and observing classes here, at UVM and Burlington High School. From here he goes to Montpelier to evaluate the system, then on to Washington where he is free to observe any class at the institution of his choice. He is limited in time however, as he must be back in Indochina by the end of November.

The slight, young brother, who teaches philosophy, speaks five languages fluently (French, English and three dialects of Indochinese.) His English would put many lifetime residents of the United States to shame. His manner, polite and humble, discloses confidence and sincerity.

Brother Dang said that the Catholics in Indochina number two-thousand out of a population of twenty-eight thousand and this ratio is slowly growing. They and the other Christians are constantly fighting against a Communism which crept in among some of the uneducated of the country under the guise of nationalism. "Living under Communism is hard," he said, "When the people understand it they don't want it."

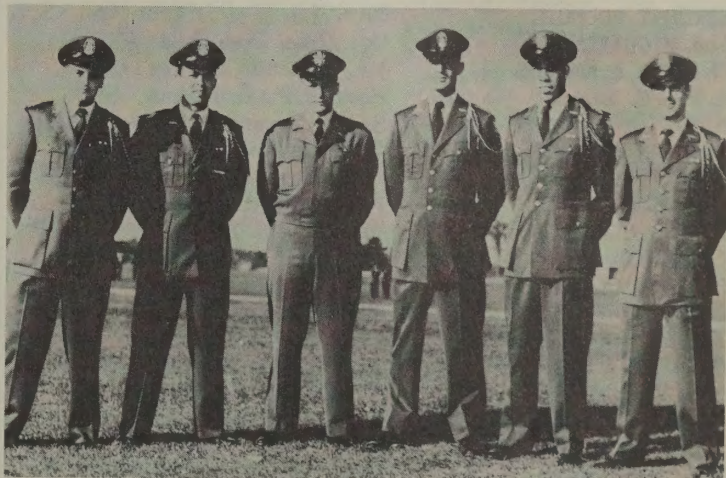

Speaking of the educational system of his native Viet Nam, Brother Dang said that although it is not compulsory, everyone has the opportunity to attend school. Unlike the American system few girls are formally educated.

In reply to the query "How do you like St. Michael's?" Brother Dang said that he was much impressed by the atmosphere of friendliness and co-operation which prevail among the fathers alike. He expressed his thanks to the Fathers for the manner in which he was treated and said his only regret was that he had to leave so soon. Concerning the teachers he added: "You are blessed with wonderful teachers."

Our final question was How does Vermont weather compare with the weather in Indochina, which brought a curt "Here you really have winter."

Arnold Air Society Strengthens Ranks

Paul Landry, Treasurer; Chris Menadier, Public Information Officer; Lt. Delmerico, Moderator, John Carroll, Commander; James McDonald, Operations and Executive Officer; Carmine Parrella, Adjutant Recorder.

Highlighting the last meeting of the A.A.S., was the very important matter of new members. The quota was five to replace those cadets who were commissioned or completed the course.

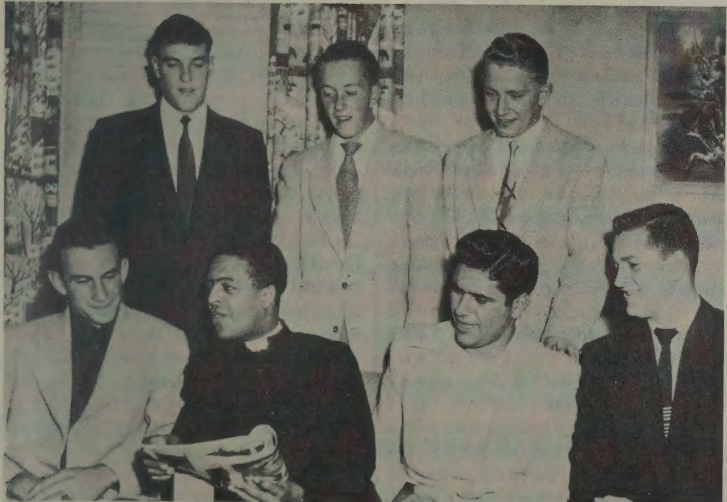

The national constitution states that each local society can not exceed in size a number equal to 20% of the advanced cadet corps. On the basis of this, the eleven society members remaining from last year, met this week to discuss just which 5 cadets in the A.S. IV classes most deserved an invitation toward membership, as III cadets will have a chance later this year!

Following its process of nomination and approval in looking for academic and military characteristics which indicate the worthy cadets, the names of the cadets were entered in the society records.

It is this writer's privilege, as public information officer of the society, to congratulate these cadet officers for having been chosen: Maj. John F. Cauley, Lt. Col. Frank D. Falcetti, Lt. Col. Walter F. Flynn, Capt. Richard S. Napolitano, and Lt. Col. Bernard A. Roque. Each of the nominees displayed during last year and, at summer camp, abilities and qualities that made their selection an inevitable honor.

SOPH. CLASS TO STAGE "FOOT-BALL" SATURDAY

New Sophomore Class President, CHRIS BOGIAGES, Moderator, Father Gopaul and committee plan for Foot - Ball

Soft-stepping sophomores and their dates will invade Austin Hall Saturday, October 10, to present their first dance of the year, the "Foot-Ball," with the kick-off slated for 8 o'clock.

The decoration committee, coached by Paul Foley and Ray Geremiah, have promised real gridiron decorum to relieve an unexpected victory over UVM under the soft arcs of Austin Hall. Music will be furnished by the "Squires," a popular Burlington combo.

Chris Bogiages, newly elected sophomore president, wishes to urge all class members to go all-out to put over the dance and to avoid the near-embarrassment of last year's meager participation. "It's our class, and it is what we make it," concluded Bogiages in his statement to the Michaelman.

The ticket price has been cut down to $1.00 per couple and the prized ducats will be handled by Chris Bogiages, St. Leo's Hall; Paul Foley, Ryan Hall IV; Marty Walsh, Ryan III; Peter Spillane, Ryan I & II; and Bob Bolster, John O'Connor, Pat Dowd, and James McCormick in Old Hall.

In charge of refreshments will be Henry O'Connor, and Russ Camire will be handling publicity. Members of the decoration committee include William Keeler, Raymond Donlin, Richard Narkewicz, Frank "Hoagy" Carmichael, William Halloran, Philip Quinn, and Richard Bousquet.

Posters were made by Richard Crowley, Chris Bogiages, Fran Keane, Frank Pandiscio, and Bob Leahy. The Sophomore class has gone to great pains in getting Henry Hines to handle the music and coat checking.

IN MEMORIAM

The prayers of the entire faculty and student body of St. Michael's are being offered up this week for the repose of the soul of one of our friends and classmates, Walter J. Fandel Jr.

We all joined Wednesday morning in a High Mass in his memory again on Thursday to attend his Requiem Mass.

Wally was a friend of many of us here on the Hilltop and his passing was a shock and bitter cross for us to accept.

The Editors of the Michaelman speaking for the entire College would like to take this opportunity to offer his parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Fandel St. of Milton Mass., our most sincere sympathy in their great loss. They at least have the knowledge that seven hundred and fifty Offerings were made in his memory, and he will forever remain in the prayers and most cherished reminiscences of every Michaelman.

Students interested in the activities of any of these clubs are cordially invited to join them. Student participation is vital to the existence and operation of these clubs.

Added note- (to the mercenary minded) -you pay for these clubs out of your Student Activities Fee. Why waste it? Scan the campus bulletin boards for the time and meeting place of the club of your preference. Then go to that meeting and KEEP going.

is large enough to accomodate the expected crowd, and has a tile floor which makes for easy dancing.

For the first time in recent years the Ball will be run on an informal basis. This was decided by popular vote of the class at a meeting held last week. Music for the occasion will be provided by a local orchestra, Dick Pervier's group. Suitable favors will be presented to all the young ladies present.

Tickets for the Ball, which, not so incidentally, will be priced at $4.00 a couple, may be obtained in any of the Senior Halls from any of the following: Dick Burke, Dick Napolitano, John O'Connor, Owen Murphy and Jack Cauley.

Tom Murray is in charge of devotions for the affair, and any Senior who is willing and able to aid in this important task should contact Tom to make his services available.

Actually, this is the only social function that is open to Seniors only. The members of the Class of '54 pride themselves on the fact that they have produced the best dances and the best partyers in the school. It shouldn't be difficult to continue this record at the Senior Ball.

In accepting the award, Father Duford expressed his pleasure at the honor bestowed upon him and graciously acknowledged those who made the award possible, station WJOY and its staff, the Freedoms Foundation, Mr. Thomas Garrett who nomicated the program for the award and the Campion players of Burlington, who sponsor the program.

He also recognized the fact that this award is a challenge to him to maintain the fine standard of quality which he has obtained. This he will attempt to do on station WJOY at 12:35 P.M. one Sunday a month.

Discusses Dance, Pep Rally

Council Settles Budget

Main topic of discussion at this week's Council meeting was the annual allocation of budgets to campus clubs. The proposed budget of $11,438 had to be cut down to $9,268 by the Council finance committee. That was the amount allotted to the Council by the College administration. The Council had a job on their hands cutting down the various and many had to take deductions of as much as 50%. Below is a list of the amount each club asked for and the amount it got...Beside this listing is the amount which the club was given to operate with last year.

Biology (prop.)	$92 - $42	$29.40
Chemistry	$85 - $50	$34.79
Debating	$535 - $360	$318.50
Glee	$300 - $100	$73.50
I. R. C.	$45 - $45	$98.00
K. & K.	$300 - $150	$245.00
Lance	$520 - $500	$441.00
Adm. Fee	$500 - $500	$500.00
Michaelman	$3500 - $3000	$2940.00
N.F.C.C.S.	$315 - $265	$323.00
Shield	$3480 - $3000	$2940.00
Sociology	$102 - $50	$49.00
Thomist	$10 - $10	$34.30
Outing	$104 - $104	$215.00
Sodality	$300 - $400	$98.00
Movies	$250 - $150

There was to be a surplus of $1000, however, due to various reasons, the surplus was $867. With this surplus a projector and card tables, for Austin Hall, will be bought. Budgets for special events may be submitted three or four weeks in advance for consideration by the council.

The other points of business brought up were dances and the tug of war. Each club is to sponsor a dance sometime during the year. This week, on Saturday night, the Sophomores are having a dance. It will be at Austin Hall and will start at 8:00 P.M. All are invited.

In regard to the tug of war: it will take place this Friday night before the pep rally. Naturally, the Sophomores and Frosh will be the participators.

The council would like to remind the students that they are to behave as Michaelmen should on Friday night during the rally in Burlington. Your school is what you make it.

New Books

contents is nkt hard to figure out. "Drinking in College" is a book hot off the Yale University Press which gives statistics and comments on collegiate drinking.

The statistics are the result of a poll of a cross-section of U.S. colleges, 27 of them, from Maine to California. The comments were based on the results of the poll.

"Modern Football for the Spectator" is a new book which acquaints the average football spectator with the game. If you're the average looker-on who knows little about the complexities of football, this book should help you somewhat. "The Handbook of Skits and Stunts" should interest college showmen.

"God and the General's Daughter" is a book of interest ot History majors and those interested in Vermont history since it is a historical novel about Fanny Allen.

"The Juggler of Our Lady" is a religious novel which tells of a man who juggled before the statue of Our Lady, and who was despised for it.

In addition to the above, the Library now has a novel, "The Mirror and the Lamp," "You Can learn How to Study," "Art in the Western World," "The Research Paper," "The Wonderful World of Books," "Fundamental Formulas of Physics," and many, many others. All in all, there are quite a few new books of interest in the St. Michael's Library.

In the new record department, there is music by J.S. Bach, Haydn, Gilbert and Sullivan, Tschaikowsky, Beethoven, and other immortal composers. They are played by such outstanding organizations as the San Fransisco Symphony. Conductors include Eugene Ormandy, Leopold Stokowski, Robert Armbruster, and Arturo Toscanini.

Instrumental artists are Jascha Heifitz, Isaac Stern, and other men of comparable fame. Nelson Eddy and Gladys Swarthout are among the vocal artists. Altogether, the 40 new records constitute some of the finest music that has ever been produced.

Biology Club Year Planned

Biology Club meets first and third Thursdays of the month; 7:00 P.M., Science 107, President Dick DiLorenzo announced this week. The meetings are to consist of seminar type discussions of current biological problems using the "Scientific American" as a basis for material. Plans have guest speakers. Upperclassmen to present papers on current topics related to the biological field.

Club moderator is Mr. John Hartnett.

Soph Beanie Raid Bounces

History was made Wednesday night, September 24th, when a large contingent of Sophomores staged an unprecedented "beanie raid" on some of the dorms occupied by unsuspecting Freshmen.

According to our knowledge, the first halls "visited" were St. James and St. Johns. Since the Frosh were busy studying, as usual, the Sophomore horde swept through the halls unhindered, shouting to their victims, "Wear that beanie tomorrow or-!" Then, as quickly as they were off in the direction of Old Hall.

By this time the shock had worn off a little and the Frosh got the general idea of what was coming off. After rallying quickly they proceeded, en masse, in the same direction that the Sophs had taken. In the meantime the Sophomores had almost gained the top floor in Old Hall. We said almost. It seems the Frosh in the Hall were holding their own with the help of a fire hose, which was working overtime. The Freshmen reinforcements arrived at the scene to be greeted by a loud and clear yell, "The Dean," which rang through the hall. Needless to say, the building was clear of Sophomores and Freshmen alike in very short order. They could be seen scattering to their own halls from the well watered down top floor of Old Hall.

Although their spirits were dampened a little, the Sophomores reformed their ranks, which were a little depleted now, and came back to St. Johns again to pay their respects however, the tables were turned. As the raiders entered the building the first person they encountered was Father Larkin. Father pointed in the direction in which the Frosh from his hall as well as some from St. James had just fled. Somewhat surprised at this choice bit of information, the Sophs, nevertheless, rushed upstairs and were startled to find a solid wedge of embattled Frosh waiting for them. At this point everybody started pushing. The outcome was still in doubt until one of the St. Johnsmen brought forth a new secret weapon, canned shaving cream. With this and a simultaneous attack from the rear by some unaccounted for Frosh the Sophomores threw in the towel and beat a hasty retreat.

Inspired by this victory, the brand new Michaelmen contemplated a raid on Ryan Hall. This was nipped in the bud, however, by the alert priests, who by this time seemed to outnumber the students. The Frosh were satisfied to march around the Hall, in a show of strength. With this it was felt that their honor was restored and they returned to their respective halls and some cleaning up.

Law School
Test Dates Set

The Law School Admission Test required of applicants for admission to a number of leading American law schools, will be given at more than 100 centers throughout the United States on the mornings of November 14, 1953, February 20, April 10, and August 7, 1954. During 1952-53 some 7400 applicants took this test, and their scores were sent to over 100 law schools.

A candidate must make separate application for admission to each law school of his choice and should inquire of each whether it wishes him to take the Law School Admission Test and when. Since many law schools select their freshman classes in the spring preceding their entrance, candidates for admission to next year's classes are advised ordinarily to take either the November or the February test, if possible.

The Law School Admission Test, prepared and administered by Educational Testing Service, features objective questions measuring verbal aptitudes and reasoning ability rather than acquired information. It cannot be "crammed" for. Sample questions and information regarding registration for and administration of the test are given in a Bulletin of Information.

Bulletins and applications for the test should be obtained four to six weeks in advance of the desired testing date from Law School Admission Test, Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, N.J. Completed applications must be received at least ten days before the desired testing date in order to allow ETS time to complete the necessary testing arrangements for each candidate.

Lt. Col. Kingston
At U.Of Pittsburgh

Lt. Col. Jarvis R. Kingston, first head of the Air Force ROTC detachment at St. Michael's College, has been reassigned.

He has been picked to study for a year at the Air Force Advanced Management course in the School of Business Administration at the University of Pittsburgh.

The Milford, Conn., native came to St. Michael's two years ago from Harvard University and helped to make the St. Michael's unit one of the outstanding detachments among colleges throughout the country.

Last year's federal inspection noted that "St. Michael's AFFOTC is doing an outstanding job in the preparation of college students for careers as officers in the United States Air Force."

This past summer at the final inspection at Westover Air Force Base, three of the four squadrons were commanded by St. Michael's men. When the air force stepped up its requests for a higher percentage of cadets to take flying, St. Michael's was topped by only one other college in New England.

Col. Kingston is a graduate of the University of Connecticut who began his Air Force service in 1940 at Panama. During World War II, he was executive officer of the 315th Wing, a B-29 unit of the 29th Air Force under Gen. Carl Spaatz. Col. Kingston, his wife and three children will make their home in Pittsburgh.

Marine Corps Team

At SMC Next Week

The Marine Corps Officer Procurement Team will be on the St. Michael's Campus next Tuesday and Wednesday, October 12 and 14.

Captain Edward F. Duncan, First Lieutenant Karl E. Moore, Staff Sergeant William P. Lakin and Corporal Lester I. Kerner will be on hand with information about the Platoon Leaders class and Officer Candidate course.

The Platoon Leaders Class is open to qualified freshmen, sophomores and juniors. By completing two six-week summer courses at Quantico, Virginia, these men are commissioned second lieutenants upon graduation from college. There are no requirements during the school year.

Seniors may earn Marine Corps Commissions by entering the Officer Candidate Course. After graduation they will take a 10 week course at Quantico which will qualify them for a commission.

The marines will be available for interview and questions throughout both days at the Counseling and Placement Bureau, Old Hall, Room 115.

All students are invited to attend the showing of two new Marine Corps Films "Leatherneck Lieutenants," and "The Amphibious Marines" in the Science Hall, Room 107, at 6:30 p.m., Tuesday evening.

AAS Hard At Work
On Military Ball

A glance at the minutes of this year's society meeting brings to the fore the news that the military ball is already well under way, and will come off with a bang on Friday, the 20th of November.

Officers of the cadet have been working on arrangements since early last spring, when the gymnasium at the Ethan Allen Air Post was given to us again this year. Also, cadet Capt. Robert Bolster has contracted a florist for the nearly 400 corsages needed. There will be one included in the purchase of every ticket.

Decorations for the dance will be installed and removed by the professional contractor who handled the winter carnival last year. This was a nearly unanimous decision at a recent society meeting, as it will doubtlessly alleviate one last-minute confusion which reigns as the hour for any big function draws near.

In the way of a reminder, be sure to get your girl's picture into the cadet headquarters during the next week! It's going to be quite a job selecting the honorary colonel who will preside at the military ball, and her four majors!

Why not try to show everyone your's is the most beautiful girl!! The girl who is eventually "commissioned" as honorary colonel will be given dinner at a Burlington Restaurant for herself and the money for the cadets ticket to the ball will be refunded.

Mission Crusade Publishes Book For Convert Class

Many persons are being shown "The Way To Eternal Life" by Fr. Boucher and his helpers from among the Mission Crusade membership. That is the name of the book which this zealous group has compiled during its work with converts. It is made up of a series of talks on the purpose of life, the fundamentals of Christianity and Christian living for adults.

Local people have been coming to Senior Hall every Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. for the last couple of years to take advantage of the religious instruction classes given there.

Last year forty persons were attending and out of these an encouraging percentage became Catholics. Usually at each class there are about 20 truth seekers with ages ranging from 15 to 60.

These classes are not only for non-catholics. All those who would like to review their faith are urged to attend.

Aside from this, Fr. Boucher has also assisted quite a few Michaelman through advice and prayer in their attempt to guide friends and relatives to the faith. He has an extensive library and file of pamphlets and similar reading material for our use. Father has been receiving us and keeping all this in his own room, but hopes to get a separate reading room for this purpose.

National Teacher Exams Held Here February 13

The National Teacher Examinations, prepared and administered annually by Educational Testing Service, will be given at 200 testing centers throughout the United States on Saturday, February 13, 1954. Local tests will be held at the university of Vermont.

At the one-day testing session a candidate may take the Common Examinations, which include tests in Professional Information, General Culture, English Expression, and Non-verbal Reasoning; and one or two of nine Optional Examinations designed to demonstrate mastery of subject matter to be taught. The college which a candidate is attending, or the school system in which he is seeking employment, will advise him whether he should take the National Teacher Examinations and which of the Optional Examinations to select.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information describing registration procedure and containing sample test questions may be obtained from Mr. Hebert directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey. Completed applications, accompanied by proper examination fees, will be accepted by the ETS office during November and December, and in January so long as they are received before January 15, 1954.

LIVING ROSARY A SUCCESS

Statue of Our Lady used in Living Rosary

The third annual Living Rosary was held at St. Michael's this week under the general direction of Chairman Peter Spillane and Faculty Adviser Mr. Martin Donahue.

Due to the weather, the Rosary, which was planned to take place on the Athletic Field, had to be carried on in Austin Hall.

Leo Capperccio acted as Assistant Chairman in the project, Tom Dewey was in charge of organization, Dick Spillane took care of the statue and decorators, Don La Roche oversaw distribution, and John King saw to audio and lighting. A special thanks was voiced by the Chairman for Bob Wagner for his successful publicity campaign.

The custom of a Living Rosary was started three years ago by Mr. Donahue and has become a regular activity here at St. Michael's.

With Apologies To David

The college professor is my shepherd and I am in dire want;
He preventeth me from lying down in the bed which I renteth;
He leadeth me to distraction with his exam questions;
He shaketh my resolution to get a college degree;
He leadeth me to make a fool of myself before my classmates.
Yea tho I burn my lamp until the landlady howleth, I fear much evil,

For he is against me.

His policies, his theories, and his ranting frighten my wits from me.

He anointeth my quiz paper with red pencil marks,
He assigneth me extra work in the presence of mine enemies;
And my zeros fill a whole column.

Surely, theories, exams, and themes will follow me all the days of my college career,

And I will dwell in the bughouse forever.

Brand-new national survey shows college students prefer Luckies

Last year a survey was made in leading colleges throughout the country which showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette. This year another nation-wide survey was made—a representative survey of all students in regular colleges coast to coast. Based on thousands of actual student interviews—this survey shows that, as last year, Luckies lead again—lead over all other brands, regular or king-size—and by a wide margin! The reason: Luckies taste better.

Centennial Field could easily pass judgement today on who will wear the 1953 Vermont Football Crown. The final score might bring the title to the Hilltop immediately, or put off a decision till the last state game at the end of the season.

With a win over Norwich already, St. Michael's stands a good chance to capture the crown for the fourth straight year. Another win would assure us of at least a tie. On the other hand, should the victory go to Vermont, the November 7 Vermont - Middlebury contest would decide to whom the Knights surrender the title. But right now, it's a wide open race.

KNIGHT AT FULL STRENGTH

No St. Michael's player on this year's team has ever witnessed a Knight loss at the hands of Vermont, or for that matter, any Green Mountain Opponent. Their state winning string of seven games dates back to 1949, and the last club to beat them was the University of Vermont. The record gives evidence of the keen rivalry between the two schools. St. Michael's holds a 5-4 advantage, but four times the margin of victory in the series was less than two touchdowns. St. Michael's largest point bulge was 34, Vermont's 33. Each team has white-washed the other twice.

The return of fullback, Ted Bergeron, brings the Knights to full strength for the Catamount game. End, Jim McDonald, and back, Paul Landry, both injured in pre-season scrimmages, saw action against Norwich and should repeat against Vermont. It is still open to question, however, whether scatback Jim McKenna will be able to play at all. The starting line-up in the front wall will see little or no change over opening game; Crotty and Pierce at the ends, Antone and Hamrah at tackle, Leahy and Bourque at guard and Foley at center. In the backfield Bergeron replaces Calabrese, other wise it's Barbatelli calling signals and Parrella and Gallagher carrying from half.

Vermont, who hasn't won a state crown since 1942, has beaten Dartmouth "B" and lost to Maine so far this season. Like St. Michael's, the Cats were hurt by graduation, particularly in star quarterback Bob Deacon. In his place, Coach Ed Donnelly has a capable passer in Mike Semens. Veteran Jim Montgomery, captain operates at fullback while Ed Nemer and Speedster Ed Beck run from the halfback slot.

The Catamounts experienced linemen include Nat Campana and Don McSparran at end, tackles Walt Johnson and Tony Calorosso, guard Clem Forte and Center Vic Scotese.

The Knights need this one to wind it up. Vermont wants it to avenge three straight losses and bring back a long absent diadem. This corner thinks that with the Dodgers, Vermont will "wait till next year" and the Knights will notch eight consecutive state victories.

FOSKET IN NET FINALS

The final matches of the tennis tournament, which had been scheduled for this week, had to be put off because of rain and cold weather.

Mr. Hebert, the Knight tennis mentor and director of the tourney, announced the finals will be staged early next week, once again, weather permitting.

Bob Fosket, a veteran of last spring's varsity, has already gained one of the spots in the last round by virtue of a 6-4, 6-3 victory over Don LeBlanc. The other semi-finalist will come from the winner of the Art McCormack, Ed Trombley battle.

In the quarter-finals, Ed Trombley defeated Dave Champagne 6-3, 6-1, while Art McCormack topped Dick Murphy 6-4, 6-3. Les Kipp fell the victim of Fosket 6-3, 6-4, and Don LaBlanc won on default.

Others who got by their first round opponents but lost out before the quarter-finals, include John Lynch, Roger Verrier, John Kaminsky, Darwyn Burnell, Dick Bockor, Bob Bernier, Bill Weihs, Chris Bogiages and Jim Starkey. Better than 25 students took part in the tournament.

Knights Meet Vermont For Title
After 31-13 Upset Of Norwich

TENTH CONTEST
FOR OLD FOES

Saturday offers the Purple Knights an opportunity to clinch their fourth straight title, as St. Michael's travels across the river to meet the University of Vermont in a game that has the flavor of apost-season tilt.

After being blanked in '51, football has taken a decided upswing at UVM, and the Cats are out to end a Knight winning streak since '49. Relying on a fine group of Sophomores, who turned in an undefeated frosh season, together with eleven returning lettermen, the Cats are roaring and the Knights rank rank high on their bill of fare.

BERGERON BACK

St. Michael's will venture forth strengthened by the return of fullback Ted Bergeron, a proven two way griddier. Ted averaged close to five yards a carry last year and was an excellent outside line-backer. With the exception of Bergeron, Coach George "Doc" Jacobs will start the same team that dimmed Norwich's state title hopes 31-13. Halfback Jim McKenna will also be available for limited duty if needed. His injured knee has responded to treatment well enough to allow him to work out with the squad.

Vermont will be relying heavily on Sophomore halfback Ed Beck for their scoring lunch. He has shown well in the Catamounts defeat of the Dartmouth "B" team and their hard-fought loss to a strong Main contingent.

On quarterback Mike Semens has fallen the task of replacing Bob Deacon, an outstanding passer and field general on last year's club. Veterans Ed Nemer and Captain Jim Montgomery round out the backfield. Coach Ed Donnelly's main problems seem to focus on the line. Returnees certain of the positions are tackle Walt Johnson and Tony Calorosso, guard Clem Forte and end Nat Campana. The remainder of the slots are being fought for by a determined group of

Sailors Race
At Middlebury

The St. Michael's College Sailing team faces one of its toughest meets of the season this weekend against Amherst, R.P.I., and Middlebury, on the latter's home waters.

The Quadrangular Meet is the third team of the year for the sailors with two more coming up after it. Last weekend, St. Michael's went down to defeat at the hands of McGill and Vermont, who tied for first place and Middlebury, who edged the Knights out for third.

White caps and winds up to 25 miles per hour caused the first meet to be called off after two races. At the time, the Knights were leading Middlebury and Vermont.

Sailing, the newest addition to the roster of varsity sports at the Hilltop will be coached by Athletic Director George "Doc" Jacobs. Since 1950, the team has competed as a project of the St. Michael's Outing Club, but this fall comes under the Athletic Department.

St. Michael's recently purchased three 9'6" Tournabouts and registered all the squad members with the New England Intercollegiate Sailing Association. A junior, Lennie Frosina was elected Commodore of the Knight fleet and senior Dick Fiset, Vice-Commodore. Andy Fisher will act as secretary and Bob Bostley, treasurer.

Other squad members include Dave Matson, Paul Foley, Fran Quinlan, Dick Gallagher and Dan Murray. Frosina and Foley will act as skippers and the Sailing Knights will operate out of Mallets Bay Boat Club on nearby Lake Champlain.

GALLAGHER PACES
SMC TO A WIN

St. Michael's gridders got off to a good start in their attempt to notch their fourth consecutive state crown by a 31-13 trouncing of Norwich. By so doing, the Knights kept intact a four year record of never having been beaten by a Vermont opponent on the new athletic field.

The four TDs of Don Gallagher highlighted the game, as the Knight halfback scored once in every quarter. A 14 yard off-tackle sprint netted Gallagher his first score about half way through the first period. Before the half had ended, John Barbatelli cut loose a pass to Gallagher, which the Knight speedster grabbed on his own 36. Before the Cadet secondary knew what happened, Gallagher was past them and well on his way to pay dirt.

In the third stanza, Gallagher rushed over from the two, and then added the final one on an 18 yard pass from Barbatelli in the closing minutes of the game. Carmen Parrella set up and scored his first touchdown of the season midway in the third quarter. A couple of short runs by Parrella brought the ball to the Norwich 20, and the scatback carried all the way on the next play.

Cadet QB, Ed Meehan sneaked over both times for the Maroon scores, once in the second period from the two, and again in the fourth from the one. The victory was the Knights' seventh in a row over state competition.

Visiting Hours At Infirmary

Rev. Armand F. Dube, college infirmarian today announced the hours which are to be observed by students when visiting friends at the infirmary. The hours open for this purpose are 2 to 3:30 in the afternoon and 7 to 8 in the evening.

Father also said that the doctor is at the infirmary every day at 11:30 for all who might need to consult him. And as all students are covered by insurance, no one should hesitate to report when in need of medical attention.

He added categorically that the infirmary cannot give excuses for missing ROTC drill to anyone who is not actually confined to the infirmary.

S. M. C. Links Forces With UVM Flying Club

Here's your chance to fly. The active UVM Flying Club has joined with St. Michael's College to make it easier for the many interested men from our campus. The extremely low cost of flying lessons compared to other institutions has brought numerous inquiries as to more of the details.

It takes only 8 hours to solo and 32 hours more until you get your private pilot's license. It all can be done for less than $150. Lessons are given in an Aeronca Sky Chief every weekend throughout the year under the supervision of a competent instructor.

The next meeting will be held at the UVM Air Science Building Thursday, October 22nd at 7:30 P.M.

For further information about this wonderful opportunity see Craig Tyman Ryan 325.

sophs and are subject to change from game to game.

The game could turn out to be a duel between two sophomore halfbacks. Beck of Vermont and Gallagher of St. Michael's. Both are capable of breaking away for long runs or outrunning the secondary after passes. The Barbati to Gallagher combination produced two six-pointers in the Norwich fray.

It's a certainty that no matter what the respective strategy, Centennial field will be the scene of a rugged battle between eleven determined Knights and eleven equally determined Catamounts.
